

About Us

HelpAlong is a dedicated service provider proudly registered with the National Disability Insurance Scheme (NDIS) in Australia. Our primary focus is on delivering comprehensive support to individuals with disabilities. We thrive in sectors where the pillars of successful relationships are built on care, quality service, and empathy. Our team passionately believes in making a genuine difference in environments where these values resonate.

Why Should you Choose Us

We understand life happens to everyone and everyone's situation is different.

Our skilled, experienced and qualified Support Coordination team are equipped to support you to strengthen your capacity and resilience. We can connect you with mainstream, community and funded NDIS services in your local community, so you can pursue your goals.

- Identify options for mainstream, community and funded NDIS supports and services
- Implementing your plan to pursue your goals
- Build your confidence and skills to use and coordinate your supports
- Coordinate service agreements; change or end a service agreement; liaise with plan managers;
- Prepare for your plan review, including collecting evidence, compiling reports and attending the meeting with you if you wish. Support you when your circumstances change and you need additional funding or a change in your current funding.
